

First Grade News May 27, 2014

Spread joy. Chase your wildest dreams. ~Patch Adams

From the desks of the first grade teachers:

Dates to remember:

May 30 – Beach Party!, a picnic in the park – bring your own lunch, or order one from the school

June 3 – Last day of school for students

- Please bring in a brown grocery sack with handles for our end of the year project.
- Fill in the lunch selection for our picnic next Friday. It is due on Wednesday 5/28.

This week in Reading – Unit 6 – read and enjoy the stories that are left in our reading book. We will also work on HFW, but there will not be an assessment.

Spelling – no more spelling lists or tests this school year!

Our last library day for first grade is Wednesday. Please return any books that have been checked out!

This week in Math - continue Chapter 15 Solve two-Digit Addition and Subtraction Problems

- Vocabulary: add, addend, difference, dime, estimate, round, subtract, sum
- We will work in this chapter, but we don't have plans to test over this chapter.
- Testing on the fourth quarter goals will continue week. The goals are counting coins to $1.00, counting by 2's, 5's 10's and backwards from 0-120.
